In Society's Realm

The annual novelty dance of the W. B. A. of the Macabees held last night in Night's auditorium, featuring the Golden Gate orchestra, was a wonderful success. With each dance, a beautiful novelty was given, which added to the beauty of the affair. A splendid luncheon was served during intermissions, which was very much enjoyed. Much credit is due the various committees for helping to make the dance successful. Couples were present from Donora, Belle Vernon, Monongahela, Brownsville and Monessen. The dance committee wish to announce that an Easter hop will be held in the near future, date being announced later.

"DAPPER DAN" IS WILLING TO RETURN

Paris, Feb. 16.—(United Press).—"Dapper Dan Collins," described as the "most dangerous crook who ever operated in the United States," and believed to have knowledge of many of the most widely discussed crimes of recent years in America, isn't the least bit afraid to go back home, he told police here today.

Collins was recognized and arrested by New York detectives, here to bring two men wanted in connection with the Shattuck jewel robbery in New York.

"Dapper Dan" admitted his identity but denied that he was guilty of any wrongdoing.

Detectives McCoy and Kane of New York, however, told police they are sure Collins is the man wanted in New York and Pennsylvania for a series of crimes ranging from rum running to robbery and murder.

Collins was arrested in a fashionable hotel after arrival from Berlin. Police said he was accompanied by an American woman, who was not aware of his identity as a famous international crook, with a marvelous facility for languages and clothes.

"Dapper Dan really is a wonderful devil," Detective McCoy said. "He knows enough about international affairs to be a diplomat, and can speak more languages than I ever heard of. 'In the States, he always frequented fashionable society, and was known in many of the big hotels in New York and Chicago.'"

New York, Feb. 16.—(United Press).—Arrest in Paris of "Dapper Dan" Collins, reported in private cables to the police department here yesterday may cast light on some of the most widely discussed crimes in recent years, police believe.

Collins is supposed to have information about the mysterious slaying of Joseph Bowne Elwell, society man and whisky expert, found murdered in his luxurious New York home about four years ago.

Collins' name has also been mentioned in connection with the murder of William Desmond Taylor, Hollywood film director, in which Mabel Normand and other screen actresses were questioned.

Only a few days before the arrest of the dapper one in Paris, police recalled his cabaret activities here in their search for the slayers of Louise Lawson, "Broadway butterfly," strangled in her uptown apartment presumably by a gang of jewel thieves of which Collins once was a member.

The Dot King murder also caused police to search for Dapper Dan.

Police believe that if extradition of the international crook can be arranged, a third degree may cause him to make revelations which will lead to clearing up many of these crimes.

DONORA CONSTABLE IS CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Deputy Constable Joseph Parrotens of Donora was taken yesterday before Alderman A. M. Jenkins of Monongahela, charged with assault and battery by Mike Heretics. Heretics claims that he was going to his home about 10 o'clock in Donora, when he was struck on the head by Parrotens, the instrument alleged to have been used being a blackjack. He said that his head was severely cut and also that he had a number of teeth knocked out. Parrotens was held for court under $500 bail, the bail was furnished by Tax Collector, James Baker, Donora.

WANTS TO BE A PRIVATE SLEUTH

W. E. Jericho, for three years a well known constable in the Second ward, Monongahela, defeated at the election last November, has applied for a private detective license, he expecting if he is given a license open an office under the name of W. E. Jericho, "Private Detective Agency." March 3 is the date fixed for the date of the hearing.

Signers to his petition are Joseph A. Herron, W. H. Alexander, John S. C. Herron, Frank B. Wickerham, B. L. Rose, H. H. Williams, J. A. Spence, C. E. Lohr, Clarence O. Despers, D. H. Borland, George W. Casper, William H. Isaac, J. B. McAllister, E. H. Downer, Harry A. Larimer, Harry C. Cannon, W. A. Cannon, W. A. Allen, Thomas C. Farquhar, D. C. Parkinson, Alexander McCann, K. C. Stuck and John Jordon, all well known Monongahela residents.

POLITICS TO NOT INTERFERE IN THE INQUIRY

Washington Feb. 16.—(United Press).—Presidential politics will not be allowed to defeat or hamper the Senate Teapot Dome inquiry, Senator Walsh, Montana, served notice today upon his friends.

Expressing his appreciation of the offers of Georgia and Nebraska Democrats who offered to circulate his name in those states as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president, Walsh firmly declined the offer.

His views on the subject were made known in a letter to the Nebraska Democratic club. This missive, he said today, expresses his position as well as anything he could possibly say. It follows:

"I thank you very kindly for the honor you have offered in consideration of any service that I have been able to render my country as a member of the Senate committee on public lands investigating the naval reserve leases, but I take it your motive is more to honor me than to set forward my name as a presidential candidate."

"I am obliged to decline your offer to circulate my name in petitions."

The same word will be sent to the Georgia Democrats who have called a conference for next Monday to discuss entering Walsh's name in that state.

Walsh feels that to have himself put forward at this time as a candidate for political honors would cause a serious reflection, in the minds of many, on the singleness of his purpose in the Teapot Dome inquiry. Some of the influences that have been trying to hush the investigation, or to discredit it, would assuredly point to Walsh's candidacy, if he permitted it to continue, as an evidence that he was simply playing politics.

EXPERTS TO REPORT ABOUT MARCH 1

Paris, Feb. 16.—(United Press).—It is believed the conference of experts headed by General Dawes, of the United States, which has just completed its investigation into Germany's capacity to pay reparations, will report to the Commission of Reparations about March 1, after which a plenary conference will be held in Paris.

The experts have just returned from Berlin and correspondents in the German capital understood they have arranged a complete program for solution of the tangled reparations problem which has harassed Europe ever since the peace conference at Paris.

While the program of the experts is guarded carefully, it is understood that their recommendations will include:

- 1.—A two-year moratorium for Germany.
- 2.—Economic liberation of the Ruhr and Rhineland without disturbing the military occupation.
- 3.—German reparations payments on a scale depending on the excess of her exports over imports.

Buick Body Construction

In constructing its open car bodies, Buick uses bolts in fastening the metal braces to the wood, instead of ordinary screws. These bolts passing completely through the wooden frame prevent joints from loosening under driving strains. A more than usual number of bolts secure the Buick body to the chassis, holding it rigidly in position and entirely eliminating all squeaks and rattles.

SCOUT DUFFLE BAG

BY H. S. HALL
Scout Executive.

Last week, from February 8, to the following Thursday, February 14, the Boy Scouts throughout the country celebrated their 14th anniversary, of the founding of this great movement in America. This movement which seeks to develop better men to serve their country, has grown so rapidly and to such an extent that over 600,000 boys are giving their time and energy to the development. There are about 20,000 troops and it is expected that by the time another Anniversary rolls around that another 10,000 will be added.

This Anniversary was celebrated in many different ways throughout the land. Some troops visited the shrines of notable Americans, some held patriotic services. The boys wore their uniforms throughout the week and special troop programs were developed, all seeking to emphasize the mile stone in the progress of Scouting. The Monongahela Valley Council has not as yet reached its first mile stone, but already it has enrolled almost 300 boys and some 100 scouts. The Council's aim is to double this during the coming year or at any rate to give every boy an opportunity to be a Scout, regardless of creed or social or economic condition.

WILSON MEMORIAL SERVICE.

At the very hour when Woodrow Wilson, our late war president, was being laid to rest, about 150 Scouts from Monessen stood in silence at parade rest, in memory of one who for eight years was their honorary President. While the color guard dipped their flag three times the roll of taps sounded and the Scouts renewed their Pledge of Allegiance to their flag. This service left an impression in the hearts of those who took part in it, much deeper than lecture or talk would in stimulating American ideals.

SCOUTING CHAMPIONSHIP.

Donora will be the scene of the final Scouting Championship, when boys from Charleroi, Monessen, Donora and Monongahela will meet to determine which Troop is the most proficient in Scouting activities. Thursday, February 26, at the Sixth street school building in Donora, beginning promptly at 7:30 p. m., is the time and place that has been set for this meet. Scout Executives from the various local Councils around Pittsburgh will be in attendance to act as Judges in the events. A huge trophy shield will be given to the winning troop, as well as medals to the individual winners of the Knot Tying race, Fire by Friction contest, First Aid race, and Signaling event. The members of the winning team in the wall scaling race will also be presented medals. A banner will be given to the best drilled patrol of 8 boys. The public is invited and it is expected that a large number of parents will accompany their boys and see for themselves just what the Scouting movement is doing.

SCOUTING GOOD TURNS.

The Monessen Boy Scouts proved that they were always eager to do a Good Turn and that when called upon they could act promptly and efficiently, when they served as ushers for the Board of Trade banquet which was held in the Junior High School gymnasium, Thursday, February 14. Although numerous attempts were made to tip the boys, but in each case the boys remarked, "We are Scouts, and do not accept tips for Good Turns." Needless to say that the work of these boys was appreciated and many favorable remarks were made particularly by the visitors from out of town.

SCOUT HEROES.

Another name was added to our list of heroes of Boy Scouts who by their quick thinking have averted danger and saved many lives. On Friday, February 8, about 1 p. m., as the school children were returning to school at Lock No. 4, a five-ton truck came down a steep grade, and skidded into the pathway of five little children, when Scout George Smier, of Troop No. 3 of Lock No. 4, under Scoutmaster Shepard, perceived the danger. He grabbed the children and pushed them into an opening in a cement wall on some steps just in time to avoid a serious accident. He himself was struck by a chain on the rear end of the truck, and received a slight laceration on the head. These are the things that make the Scout slogan, "Be Prepared," a vital living thing.

Our list also embraces the name of Leo Hojak, of Troop No. 4 of Donora, under Scoutmaster Diess, who on September 15, 1923, saved Mary Saxton from burning to death, while he himself, was severely burned. John Antonio on June 20, 1923, saved Patsy
